

(Please record positive behaviours that demonstrate improved social cognition as well as negative events)

Setting Event Describe the Time Date Location Staff involved when the behaviour occurs	Antecedent Describe what happens right before the behaviour occurs (the triggers)	Behaviour Describe the details of behaviour (avoiding subjective terms), how long the behaviour lasted, and the level of severity.	Consequence Describe what happens as a consequence of the behaviour, intervention by staff occurred, include how long it took to bring the behaviour under control.	Possible Function (escape, attention, sensory, obtain tangible)
Time Date Location Staff involved	Example 8:30 am May 25, 2017 Life Skills Classroom EA: Dawn M	When Joe entered the classroom he saw a picture of himself and a friend published in the local newspaper pinned up on the classroom notice board. They were photographed as they were about to be taken up in a small aircraft for the first time (Joe's Make a Wish Foundation treat, he picked his best friend to go with him) Joe pointed at the friend in the picture and exclaimed, "Fake Smile!".	When I asked what he meant, he said his friend was very nervous about the flight, and his smile was a "fake", and just there because the photographer told them to "smile for the camera". Joe pointed out that he was happy and excited about the flight, and his own smile was "Happy". When his friend arrived, he called him over to the picture to look at their smiles.	When asked what the difference was, Joe did not answer but pointed to the "smile lines" around his eyes (that were absent on his friend's face). Joe demonstrated new understanding of the difference between a fake and real smile. Friend later confirmed that his smile was fake - he was very anxious at the time. Friend did not know what Joe meant by "Fake" smile. They talked about smiles and we looked at fake versus real smile images on the computer later on, and looked at the LFI! game People Categories cards of "Happy". Practiced finding fake versus real smiles in magazines with peer helper.